

FILM INTERNSHIP FUND

Invest in the next generation of filmmakers

In partnership with the California Film Commission, we're fostering the next generation of entertainment professionals through immersive work-based learning experiences. Join us in propelling California's entertainment sector forward.

HOW IT WORKS

Benefit from the California Film Commission's tax credit program supporting eligible film projects produced in California. To meet the career readiness requirement for the tax credit, contribute to the fund, which supports interns' wages. Further your impact by becoming a worksite, empowering interns to contribute impactful work and explore a range of technical crafts.
